LEARNING

Ways2Work is part of Bristol City Council and they deliver a wide range of employment support to Bristol residents. Working with partners across Bristol and the West of England they deliver job fairs, host networking meetings, circulate information but, most importantly, link together the various support agencies, colleges and employers in the area to help residents of Bristol and the West of England secure employment.

Ways2Work run regular job fairs across Bristol to support residents and employers directly or highlight existing opportunities of support and training.
